

E. G.
Loomis'
Book
and Art Store
1103 Main St.,
Lexington, - Mo.

THE UP-TO-DATE HOLIDAY STOCK HAS COME.

A Cheerful Call to Christmas Buyers. Beautiful gifts, never so good, never so cheap. Our Fine Display of Holiday Goods is open and ready; The Newest Novelties; The Best Selections; The Most Appropriate Presents for one and all at fairest prices. Don't fail to come in and see our Christmas Attractions. Toys, Books, Novelties, Pictures, Picture Frames, Fancy Goods, Notions, Etc. Whatever your wants may be we can meet them with beautiful and appropriate selections

GRAND HOLIDAY OPENING
Saturday, November 30th, 1901.
Hours 6 to 9 P. M.
Music by the Orchestra. Everybody is Invited.

We claim for our Holiday Display, general excellence in quality, great variety and very reasonable prices; making it beyond question or doubt the right place to get the right gifts at the right prices. We solicit a comparison of goods and prices knowing that Our Holiday Stock will make friends, outshine rivals, please everybody and sell on its merits. Don't forget the date of our Grand Holiday Opening; it is Saturday, November 30th, hours 6 to 9 P. M. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

E. G. Loomis' Book and Art Store

COUNTY CORRESPONDENTS.

Gathered by our Special Correspondents.

LEXINGTON HAPPENINGS.
Seale is visiting relatives in Eowler was in Kansas City
y.
ne and wife, of Alma, were
day.
attle Mason is spending the Kansas City.
leahy made a business trip to y Tuesday.
Robert Corder, of Corder, was here Tuesday.
Hitt and wife, of near Dover,
sping here Saturday.
aisy Fineh, of Corder, spent
h Miss Minnie Hickman.
Baptist and German M. E. are holding protracted meet-Bealls, wife and daughter,
ne, of Alma, were shopping
eday.
anford Thornton, of Lexing-
ed her mother, Mrs. Dooley, and Sunday.
erry and wife left for Kansas first of the week, where they their future home.
ara Frerking and John Smith
er, attended the Christian upper at the "Arcade" Tues-son and B. B. Leach spent in Carrollton attending to and visited relatives in Nor-
day.
ella Hickman left Wednes-
ing for a two weeks visit ster, Mrs. J. W. Browning, urn.
Belt left Thursday morning rg, Kas., where he will store for the Bolon Coal Co. months. From there he will ig, I. T., to hold the same this city, Saturday, Novem-901, Mrs. Emma Des Grais aged 25 years, 3 weeks and The deceased leaves a hustwo small children and a ends to mourn her loss.

Miss Mary Endley returned Saturday evening from an extended visit in Bushnell, Ill.
Chas. Lieser, H. W. Lieser and Ben Hetter, of Corder, were here on business Wednesday.
J. E. Roark, of Lexington, is here assisting T. E. Hickman, the local agent, in the insurance business.
Mrs. J. R. Hickman, of Bellamy, Mo., returned home Wednesday, after a two weeks' visit with relatives here.
Ned Asbury and wife and Miss Myrtle Carter and Ernest Holland spent Sunday in Dover, the guests of Miss Mary Willie Redd.
Mrs. Jesse Fields and Mrs. John Kinzie spent several days in Kansas City this week visiting relatives and attending the flower show.
from a defective flue. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done. The property is owned by S. G. Emerson.
Died, in this city, Saturday, November 16, 1901, Thomas S. Vaughn, aged 89 years and seven months. Mr. Vaughn had been an invalid for some time. He leaves a wife and four children, Mrs. W. J. Craig, Mrs. C. S. Allander, Charles and Ralph Vaughn to mourn the loss of an indulgent and loving husband and father.
The entertainment and supper given by the men of the Christian church at the Arcade hotel Tuesday evening was a decided success, both socially and financially. A very neat sum was realized and the gentlemen are to be congratulated for their management and skill in the culinary department and as entertainers.

WELLINGTON AND VICINITY.
(BY LEALMA.)
Robert Hale, of Lexington, was here Monday.
Thos. Hardin was in Independence Tuesday.
H. B. Corse visited Kansas City on business Tuesday.
Born, Friday, November 15, 1901, to the wife of W. W. Corse, a girl.
Born, Monday, November 18, 1901, to the wife of Lucien Morgan, a girl.
Emmet Hammer has been quite sick during the past week, but is improving now.
H. F. Brinkman, administrator, had business before the probate court in Lexington Monday.

A. A. Bauman went to Kansas City for more good things for his restaurant and confectionary Monday.
Charles Kinkead came up from Lexington Saturday night and remained over Sunday with the old folks.
Mrs. C. Q. Kinkead spent several days with her parents, W. F. Puroell and wife, at Independence this week.
George M. Slade came down from Kansas City Monday evening and will be here for some time, possibly all winter.
Monday H. S. Kinkead was called to the bedside of his father, H. S. Kincaid, Sr., who is in very feeble health at Independence.
Price Crutsinger has rented the building on Walnut street, near H. W. Carter's blacksmith shop, and is constructing a ten-pin alley therein.
Andrew Nelson was shaking hands with the few old friends still living in Wellington Saturday evening. Mr. Nelson was born and reared near town but left Missouri thirty-one years ago and has since lived in Helena, Mont., and is back for a few days visit to the scenes of his earlier life.
Fair sized and appreciative congregations listened to the sermons delivered Sunday morning and evening by the Rev. Mr. Reeves at the M. E. church, South. Several of the congregation in the hearing of your correspondent expressed the hope that he would feel called upon to come up and preach to them again at some not far distant day.
C. B. Snow, Martin Cowles, C. C. Miller and Pierce Kane, all of Kansas City, with S. C. Archer, Will Crutsinger and others of this city, indulged in a coon hunt up the Big Sul creek Saturday night and did remarkably well. Mr. _____, while skulking through the woods, fell over a log, lighting plump on a possum hiding in the leaves, which he grabbed by the tail and clung to until help arrived.
A fire of unknown origin started in a deep ravine north of the residence of James Strodman, Saturday night, and swept over several hundred acres of land south and west to a point a short distance east of Waterloo, where it finally died or was put out Tuesday night. Fortunately farmers, by plowing around fields, saved their crops, though fences were destroyed in some places and a large lot of lumber more or less damaged.

Mrs. Moses Griffin, who was once a resident of Wellington, now living near Columbus, Johnson county, Mo., spent Sunday with the family of Judge J. A. Lockhart.
WAVERLY ITEMS.
The Rev. Mr. Carter, Baptist minister failed to keep his appointment here Saturday.
Horace Blackwell, the Lexington attorney was looking after legal business here Saturday.
Mrs. Rena Ball, of Denver, Colorado, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Johnson.
William Tussey and daughter, Miss Laura went to Carrollton the early part of the week to spend a few days visiting.
On next Saturday night, November 23, the ladies of the Christian church will give an oyster supper in the Bellamy building near the postoffice.
The Rev. T. A. Brunner and family have arrived and taken up their home here. They are at home in the residence recently occupied by Aldridge Corder.
Thomas Cauthorn killed a large red fox in his yard recently. Raynard is supposed to have been in search of his breakfast in the nature of a chicken when he met death.
Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the Methodist church next Thursday. The Rev. T. A. Brunner, pastor of the Presbyterian church will preach the sermon.
T. A. Holtzelaw and S. J. Waite are arranging to erect a large ice-house near the depot. In dimensions it will be 25x100 feet. The lumber to be used in its construction is now being sawed.
R. L. Orear is improving the Cannon property, recently purchased. When the work is completed Mr. Orear will have one of the most inviting, up-to-date homes in Waverly.
J. Ray Samuels, chief deputy in the county clerk's office at Kansas City, and Miss Mary Small, formerly of Lexington, were married at the Fifth Street M. E. church at Sedalia, Tuesday morning, in the presence of a large number of invited friends.

THANKSGIVING PROGRAMME.
The Thanksgiving programme for the Western Teachers Association, beginning at 9:30 o'clock a. m. at Warrensburg on Friday, Nov. 29, is appended: Recent School Legislation,
a. Institute Law, J. A. Keuhls, Concordia.
b. Course of Study, J. S. M. Huff, Marshall.
c. Consolidation of Districts, W. T. Hoover, Oak Grove.
d. Library, A. A. Wirt, Belton, General Discussion.
Friday, November 29, 1:30 p. m. Nature Study.
a. Utility, T. E. Spencer, Marshall.
b. Presentation, L. W. Rader, Kansas City.
General Discussion.
Literary Style, Dr. J. P. Fruit, Liberty.
Individual Classification,
Mrs. Frank DeGarmo, Lee's Summit.
Discussion, W. C. Sebring, Higginsville.
Friday Eve. Nov. 29, 7:30 p. m. Address of Welcome.
Response.
Address, Dr. E. B. Craighead, Warrensburg.
Saturday, Nov. 30, 1901, 9:00 a. m. Drawing in Public Schools, Prof. Robert Zoll, Warrensburg.
_____, H. A. Gass, Jefferson City.
_____, Wallace Crossley, Warrensburg.
Adjourn.
W. H. JOHNSON, Pres.
MISS MARY JEAN WHITE, Sec.
The first thing Champ Clark knows he will stir up a candidate for congress over in the ninth district. Shrewd Missourians are not slow to "grasp a situation," and Mr. Clark's district has in it some of the shrewdest of the shrewd in J. O. Allison, of Ralls, and others the INTELLIGENCER might mention.
On the 10th of December the people of Marshall are to vote on a proposition to issue $70,000 in bonds for the purpose of putting in a new water-works and a new electric light plant.
The Kansas City World suggests that the Mercantile club of that town has gone into Kansas to "scatter sunshine," but fails to name the brand.